

US Army Corps of Engineers®
Omaha District

Interior Design

Center of Expertise

The Omaha District is designated the Corps-Wide Technical Center of Expertise for Interior Design. Our staff is experienced in both building related interior design (SID-structural interior design) and furniture related interior design (CID-comprehensive interior design).

Building Related Interior Design

Color coordination of materials

Specifications

Color boards

Space planning

Drawings

Floor and wall pattern design

Signage and wayfinding programs

Finish replacement programs for existing buildings

Furniture Related Interior Design

Furniture programming estimates

Furniture selection

Furniture placement/layout

Furniture order forms

Systems Furniture selection, layout, & specification

Artwork

Window treatment

Furniture replacement program for existing buildings

Procurement and construction management of furniture packages

Other Services

Review Architectural/Engineering designs

Provide technical assistance

Create guide specifications

Develop design guides